Well Done Adam for an excellent ride!

A big thank you to all observers and helpers who contributed to another enjoyable event. Also to my wife Adele who does the results

Following all the feedback after our experimental splitting of the routes, it is clear that riders find it hard to move from white to yellow. We have introduced a 'green' route which is the yellow route with one deviation per section to cut out the most difficult bit. 6 riders tried it at this trial, we will continue to run this over the year at this stage on a no awards basis but will review according to how it develops.

Next trial is on 24 February 2008, see you there

Edgar Jones
