The weather stayed clear for what turned out to be an excellent day out at Rileys Railway, where a much healthier turnout of 38 riders tested their skills against 5 laps of 8 slippery and tricky sections. The sections were perfectly set out to take marks from even the best riders, yet not to be dangerous so thanks to the boys who came along on Saturday to set them out, and if anyone fancies trying their hand at setting a few please email us or give Richard Hodges a ring as any help is always appreciated. Another excellent turnout of observers with all sections being observed, so thank you to our regular bunch (Max, Mick, Michael, Tony) and to everyone else who took up a section, it is much appreciated. It was a tight result on the expert route, with Callum Harris taking the win on cleans from Oliver Wareing, who actually had some competition this time! Regular yellow route winner Andy Butt also won on cleans, taking the victory away from expert rider Ian Margetts, who entered the hard route but wimped out after seeing the jump over the stream on section 5! Also well done to youth rider Michael John Lefevre, who seems to be improving rapidly of late, for taking the white route victory, just 2 marks ahead of Colin Saunders, who had Jeff Ward hot on his heels. There is no trial in December so our next event is 9th January 2011, hope you all have a good Christmas, and hope to see you all in the new year!
