Our sincere thanks go to the landowners, Tommy Woodhouse and Graham Ibbetson and their families as well as to the full compliment of observers. Well done to everybody who finished the trial, and whilst we know the scores were high we never heard a single moan as everybody realises that this is just a slippy venue.

The club's next event is the fourth of our very popular Wednesday evening trials, sponsored this year by Nigel Birkett's Ossa Moto UK company. It will be on August 24 at Batty Hill Farm, Cockerham, a new venue for us, though it has been used some 15 or so years ago. As always there will be a dead easy route as well as the normal clubman course and it's open to ALL abilities. Start time is 6pm and entries will be taken on the night with Martha's catering available.
