Well, despite the best attempts of the weather, the trial went ahead thanks to the efforts of course plotters Steve, Sam, Joff and Nige.
 (hope I spelled your name right Joff - never had to write it down before...)
 So a muddy one, but a rare chance to spin the rust from off those 3rd and 4th gears for some spirited attempts on the muddy banks of sections 8, 9 and 10

Thanks to John and Jean once again for the use of the ground, the bacon butty girls and to all observers
 Thanks to all riders for supporting the event, hope you enjoyed the challenge and look forward to seeing you at our events in 2013, by which time the venue may have dried out enough that we can try some of the variations on sections that we planned back in June but which so far the weather has not let us use...

Once again, can I ask you to take care when filling out your forms, particularly the route you are riding.
 Whilst compiling the results I see one rider entered on the Easy route (which is WHITE, not YELLOW / GREEN) but you've ridden sections 9 and 10 which didn't have white routes marked out.... Therefore you're in the Yellow route results
