The entry was the largest we've had for the fourth evening trial of the series for many years despite it being a overcast and decidedly chilly night - at least it was for observers in exposed places!, and the trial was once again a bit easier than the first two rounds according to comments received.

Thanks to the observers who stood out in the chill and also to landowner Malcolm Woodhouse and his family for welcoming the club to his land.

The shaded results indicate no scores at all on the observer's sheets which probably indicates the riders totally missed the section.

The next Lancs County trial is on Sunday, September 7 at a totally brand new venue for trials very near Dunsop Bridge in the Trough of Bowland. We reckon that this land could well prove to be the best trials area we have ever had the pleasure of using. The actual location will be revealed on here and on Trials Central and in TMX in about a week's time as we are not exactly sure at the moment where the start will be located.

The final round of the Ossa series is not until Saturday November 8 at a venue to be decided.

Any queries about these results to Mike Rapley on 07788 161929.
